

LINKING Web of Science with ORCID iD

Before you begin, make sure you have already created and ORCID iD profile and a Web of Science user account. If not:

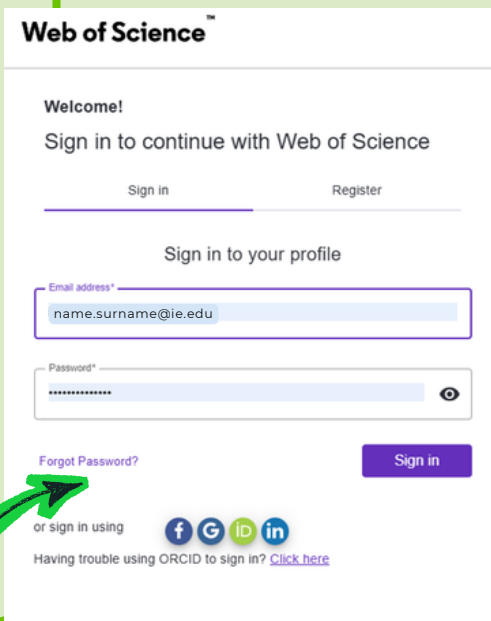

HOW TO REGISTER IN WEB OF SCIENCE

HOW TO REGISTER IN ORCID iD

1 ACCESS TO WEB OF SCIENCE

Go to the “e-Resources and Databases” section on the IE Library website. Search for Web of Science and click on the link.

Sign in using the credentials associated with your Web of Science account.

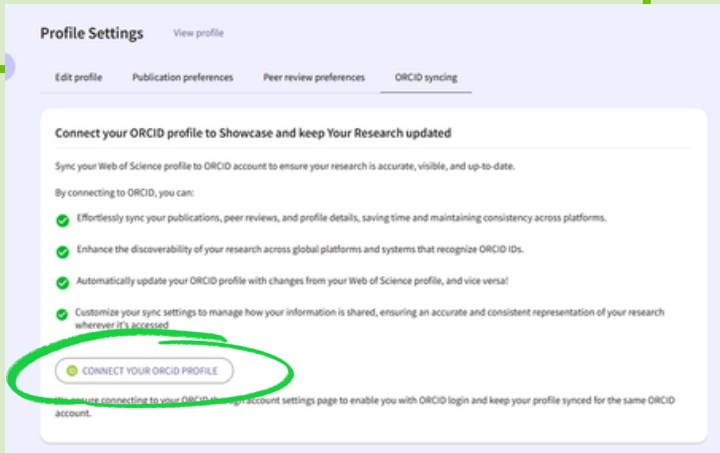

2 PROFILE SETTINGS

Open your researcher profile and click “Edit”.

On the Profile Settings page, select ORCID syncing, and then click “Connect your ORCID profile”.

3 CONNECTING

You will be redirected to the “Account sign in & security” page. Under Connected accounts, click “Connect” next to ORCID and follow the instructions to authorize the connection.

Check that your profiles have been successfully linked. If the connection has been set up correctly, your ORCID iD will appear below your Web of Science ResearcherID
